The Ten People

The project consists of ten objects/installations based on ten peoples' stories. Our lives are getting more convenient as a result of globalization.

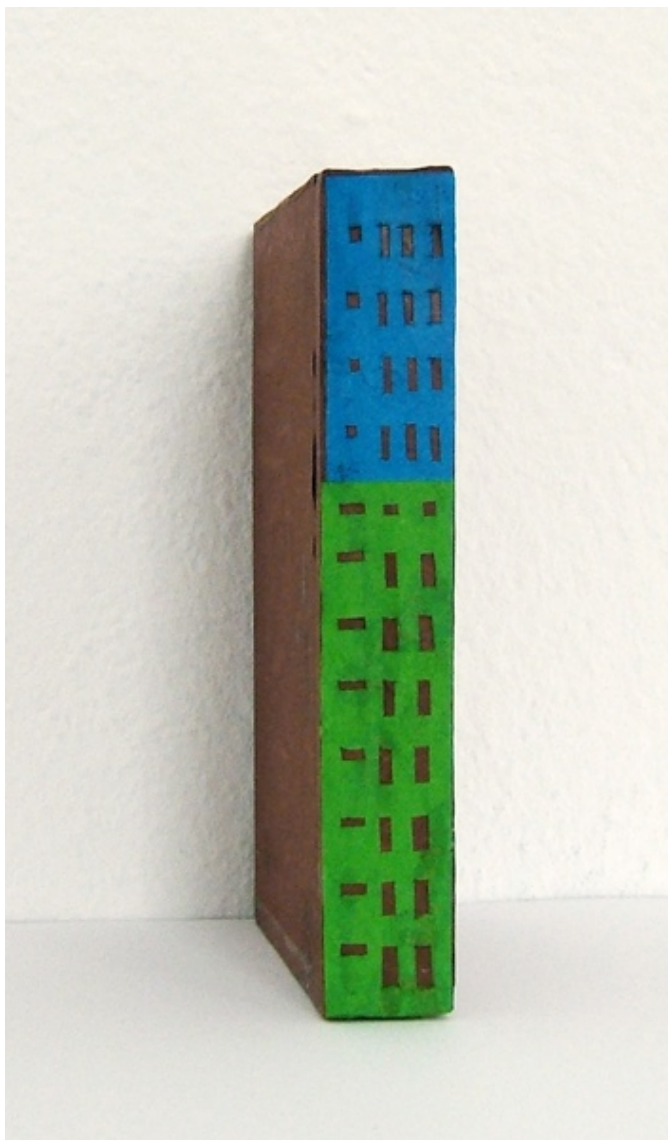

However, we still encounter many situations that cause new problems. Our company focuses on the stories of ten modern people, and deals with their tiny but irritating problems. In our project, we not only present their opinions in the form of a documentary, but we also try to provide unique solutions for the problems.

The Ten People No. 3

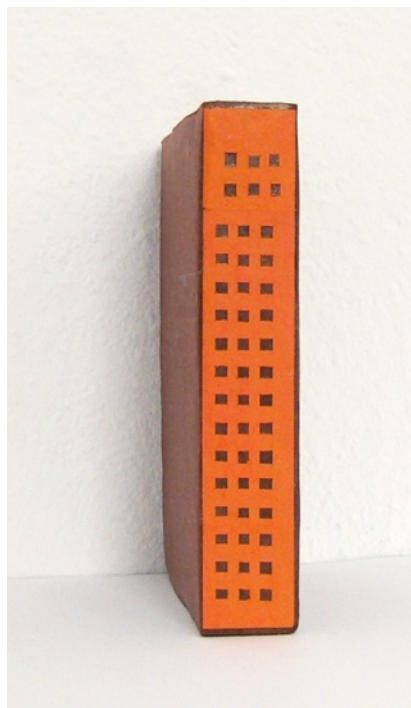

The books read peoples' story.
